DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

This document contains important information relating to the information given to the Company. This notice also applies to anyone else that is insured under this policy and should also be shown to them. This section draws to your attention how the Company use your information, who it might be shared with and also the systems in place which allow fraud to be detected and prevented.

DATA COLLECTION, SHARING, STORAGE AND FRAUD PREVENTION / DETECTION

Any Data collected (personal and / or sensitive personal) first and foremost is used for the purposes of administering and underwriting your insurance policy.

The Company will ensure that this Data will:

- a) Be held securely.
- b) Not transferred outside of the European Union or European Economic Area.
- c) Never passed on for marketing or sales purposes.

In accordance with Data Protection Legislation, attention is drawn to the fact that at any time telephone calls may be recorded and monitored for the purpose of detecting fraud and deception or training and monitoring purposes.

Your details may also be supplied to a number of data sharing/ fraud prevention Agencies such as Hunter and CIFAS. In addition the Company may for audit / claim purposes make additional searches via third party agencies. Other organisations may also use and search these records in their efforts to combat fraud and undertake credit searches.

Claims information will be added to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register, run by the Insurance Database Services Ltd and / or the Motor Insurance Anti Fraud and Theft Register run by the Association of British Insurers.

It is a condition of this policy that you immediately tell the Company about any incident (such as an Accident or a theft) regardless of blame and whether or not is likely to give rise to a claim. Information relating to it will be passed onto the appropriate Agencies.

For claims and / or anti-fraud purposes the Company may also share certain (including sensitive personal) information about you, with:

- a) Associated Companies.
- b) Subsidiary Companies.
- c) Trading partners.
- d) Third parties and their representatives.

This information may be shared and used for the above purposes even after your policy has lapsed, cancelled or been voided.

You have a legal right to be:

- a) Told whether any personal data is being processed.
- b) Given a description of the personal data, the reasons it is being processed, and whether it will be given to any other organisations or people.
- c) Given a copy of the information comprising the data and details of the source of the data (if available).

A fee maybe payable (not more than £10) and some types of data may be exempt from your subject access request.

If you or anyone acting on your behalf provides the Company with false or inaccurate information and fraud is proven or suspected, all benefits under this policy may be void or cancelled, any claims refused and the full annual premium retained by the Company.

The matter will be reported and recorded with the appropriate agencies and authorities and pursued in accordance with the law.

The Company wish to make it clear that the vast majority of honest policyholders suffer as a result of a few and the aim is to provide the best possible service to the genuine customer. Through the use of anti-fraud data sharing and certain interview techniques the Company are able to address fraud in a manner that enables us to keep premiums competitive.
